We are excited to report that our own NY producer, Chris Dermody, has won 3 prestige's cow/calf shows.

2016 New York State Fair
2016 Keystone International Livestock Expo
2016 North American International Livestock Exposition

Chris Dermody of Locust Lane Herefords from Linwood, N.Y. had the opportunity this past show season to show Elm Lodge Aloha and her bull calf, LLH 8051 Distinguished 616 in the cow/calf division at three major shows. The season started at the New York State Fair in Syracuse, N.Y. where the cow calf pair was chosen Grand Champion cow/calf. The next show took place in October at Harrisburg, Pa. during the Keystone International Livestock Exposition (K.I.L.E.). This show is a National show for the participating Hereford breeders. At this show Elm Lodge Aloha and her bull calf were chosen as Grand Champion cow/ calf pair. The final show of the season took place in Louisville, Kentucky in early November at the North American International Livestock Exposition (N.A.I.L.E.). This show is also a National show for Hereford breeders. Elm Lodge Aloha and her bull calf had the honor of being selected as the Grand Champion cow/calf pair.

Chris would like to thank Chris Montross, Robert Groom and Jonah Broughton for their help during this past show season.

Megan Anderson, Long Eddy, N.Y., was named second runner-up for National Hereford Queen. Queen candidates are evaluated on their involvement with and knowledge of the Hereford breed, behavior, attitude, appearance and interaction with producers, as well as their resumes and interviews.
Congratulations Megan!
